LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. J. A. Wright is home from the West.

Harry, son of Col. A. A. Fletcher, is sick with a fever.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wilds arrived home Sunday morning from their trip to New York.

Mrs. Geo. Morse of Boston is spending the fall with the family of Mr. W. S. Alden.

Miss Hallie Alden of this village picked a second crop of garden strawberries last week.

Mr. G. E. Marshall has a curious watch on exhibition in his window. It is called the automatic.

The leaves are rapidly falling from the trees. The foliage this fall has been more than ordinarily handsome.

A heavy rain storm, Tuesday evening, marked a decided change in the weather, which had been very warm for October.

Mr. E. R. Clay is slowly recovering from his third attack of illness and was able to ride out for a short distance, Monday.

Miss Helen M. Adams, of Bethel, who has been visiting at S. R. Hawthorne's the past week, returned home last Monday.

The interior of the Vallette block is being fitted up for the use of the firm that opens for business there in about two weeks.

A large number of pulp logs have been brought down the creek by the recent rains and are lodged on the falls and in the rapids above them.

Secretary Parsons of the Y. M. C. A., who has been in Barre attending the State meeting of the associations, is expected home tomorrow night.

The chimneys and battlements of the Addison House, which had not been repaired since the building was put up, have been taken down and relaid.

It is announced that the Commercial Union Telegraph Co. will soon open an office here. An office has lately been established by the company at Vergennes.

Mr. Alex. Meekin spent this week with friends in town. He is in the employ of a large printing concern in Troy, N. Y., with whom he has been for two years past.

Mr. Eugene E. Howe of Ludlow, who has been appointed one of the official reporters of the State House of Representatives, is a member of the junior class of this college.

Mrs. Kate A. Seymour yesterday removed from the rooms in Hon. Columbus Smith's building, Mill street, to Mr. Albert Chapman's house on North Pleasant street.

Mr. L. C. Bain is quite seriously ill at the home of Mr. Colby, his brother-in-law, on Seminary street. He was taken sick about two weeks since, and has typhoid fever.

Mr. Junius E. Severance came home Saturday morning from Texas, whither he went with sheep about six weeks ago. He reports a fair market and that he sold all his shipment.

Barrels for apples are staple articles hereabouts just at present, and fruit-growers of the vicinity have visited pretty much every house in the village the past week in quest of them. The demand greatly exceeds the visible supply.

Prof. Yager was able to go to Townsend, Mass., last Friday, to preach on Sunday. He will soon remove his family here, the repairs on the college house, which they are to occupy, being nearly done.

A petition, praying the legislature to grant women the privilege of voting in municipal elections, is in circulation in the village. The blanks are printed, indicating that the movement is not a local one.

In the case of Chas. Selinas against the State Agricultural society and the Champlain Valley association, for damages for injuries received at the joint exhibition of 1884, the jury at Montpelier, last week, brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $725. He sued for $5000.

Butter sold in this market, Monday, at the same figures as the previous week, though buyers say that the market is going down instead of up in consequence of large shipments to Boston as soon as the price raised there. Fair to good brought 23 to 24 cents, and selections as high as 25 cents.

Mr. Jesse Stearns of this place has received the appointment of clerk to the revision committee of the House of Representatives. It is the business of this committee to take in hand all bills of a public nature, before their final passage, and revise them so that they shall express fully and clearly the meaning intended by their makers.

Miss Jessie, daughter of Mr. G. S. Wainwright, is sick with scarlet fever, and it is possible that the reception for the members of the Women's board of missions, which was to have been given at Mr. Wainwright's on the evening of the 26th, may not be held there. More definite notice of this and of other features of the meeting will appear next week.

Over seventy tickets for the New York excursion of Tuesday were sold at this station. Among those who went were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bond, Postmaster Peck, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Sheldon, Mrs. M. A. Munroe, Mr. G. E. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Gascia Rich, Mrs. O. A. Bicknell and Mr. J. E. Negus. Mr. Marshall and Mr. J. E. Negus, Mr. Marshall's disposal several days before the excursion came off.

Letters addressed as follows have remained at the postoffice one month unclaimed for: Edward Ash, Mrs. Eugene Bixall, Miss Fanny Barrows, Mrs. Baxter, Edward Bartlett, Jos. Clark, Maggie Carmody, Mary Carmody, Mrs. Maggie Connell, Mrs. N. N. Drew, Chas. W. Everts, Fred Fuller, Miss Hannah Forrest, Mrs. D. P. Hubbard, Mrs. Camella King, Moses Marselles, Henry Marceal, Miss Maggie Manning, Chas. W. Norton, R. E. Noble, C. G. Pulsipher (2), John Roberts, Amos P. Smith, A. C. Sumner, Warren L. Townsend.

The case, State vs. Michael McNully, was tried on Friday last before Justice T. H. McLeod, Grand Juror Shade prosecuting and W. H. Bliss, Esq., defending. The respondent was fined $5 and costs, $8.50, $13.50 altogether. The respondent's family and that of Timothy Sullivan live in a double house in the vicinity of the upper pulp mill, and the proximity of the parties seems not to have been conducive to amicable relations; trouble ensued, and in the course of the difficulties Michael emptied a quantity of dirty refuse on the head of Mary, wife of Timothy. Hence this prosecution.

The ten-years-old daughter of Mr. Jas. Smith, who lives on Mr. G. C. Chapman's farm east of the village, was very badly injured last Friday by a horse. She was sitting upon the back of the animal, which had on a harness, when it became frightened and she tried to jump off. Her foot caught in the harness and threw her under the horse's feet. When picked up it was found that a hole had been cut through her right cheek, and that her lower jaw was broken at the eye-tooth on the left side. Whether the injuries were produced by a kick from the horse or whether it stepped on her is unknown. She is doing well under the care of Drs. Eddy and Kingsley. The latter has made a peculiarly-shaped splint to hold the broken bone in shape till it knits, and, unless something unusual happens, no serious results are expected.

There was quite a disturbance of the public peace, Saturday evening, and it looked at one time as if a serious row might come of it. Robert Steele drove rapidly through the streets, crossing the bridge a number of times at a speed that threatened destruction to anything that came in the way of his vehicle. It was suspected that he had been drinking too much, and the officers attempted to arrest him in the vicinity of the Vallette block. He resisted stoutly, made a great noise and a crowd soon gathered. Many of them took sides with Steele, and a free fight seemed imminent. But at last one or two of the cooler heads got Steele out of the crowd and heard his story, when he was released. It was learned then that his wife was seriously ill and that the cause of his furious driving was a desire to procure a physician for her as speedily as possible.

A COMING TROTTER.
We enjoyed a short ride last Monday with Mr. Ira J. Twitchell of Weybridge, behind his bay three-year-old gelding by Thought. Though hitched to a top carriage and containing two heavy occupants, the gallant fellow showed pure trotting speed, surpassing any animal of his age we have ever sat behind. He will be trained next season.

MIDDLEBURY Y. M. C. A.
Last Sabbath Rev. A. DeF. Palmer gave the address at the Y. M. C. A. hall, upon the power of the word of God. Next Sabbath Rev. S. L. B. Speare will speak. At the meeting on Wednesday evening several new members were voted in. Next Tuesday evening, Oct. 19, at 8 o'clock the class in penmanship will begin their lessons with Mr. Will Bond as instructor. On Monday evening, Oct. 25, Rev. A. E. Carpenter will meet the class in book-keeping.

Friday evening, Oct. 22, at 8 o'clock, Dea. J. E. Crane will give a talk upon Bees. This has been promised for some weeks and it is hoped that the members of the association together with their friends, both ladies and gentlemen, will attend in large numbers. Deacon Crane is an authority upon bees in all this region and will be able to give many interesting facts. He will tell how the bee has been regarded in different parts of the world, and speak of the different kinds of bees, their habits and life in the hive, honey-making, pollen-gathering, fruitifying plants etc., etc. No one who is able to be present should fail to come.

WEDDING BELLS.
In Rochester on the morning of the 8th inst. at the residence of the bride's father, Miss Lizzie A. Cushman, only daughter of Gen. Artemas Cushman of Rochester, was united in marriage with Mr. Charles Townsend, the well-known commercial agent of Wells, Richardson & Co. of Burlington. Rev. E. E. Herrick officiated at the wedding, which was very quiet, only a few neighbors being present. The happy pair immediately started on their wedding trip in which they will visit Boston and New York, returning to Rochester on Monday next, when the reception will be held, after which they will go to Burlington, where they will reside. Mr.

Townsend has added to marked success in business that best of all acquisitions, a lady of rare worth, loveliness and accomplishments. Hosts of friends wish them joy.

—The novelist Howells is making a study of life in newspaper offices with the expectation of writing a story about it. The new book will doubtless abound in anecdotes of "Old Subscriber," "Justice," "Constant Reader," "Vox Populi," and other members of the grand army of anonymous genius whom we love so well.—[Philadelphia Press.]

SCIENTIFIC WORK

PUBLISHED BY

FOWLER and WELLS CO

Of New York.

Among the many are the following VALUABLE BOOKS:

HOFFMAN, U. J., Associate Principal of Jennings' Seminary and Normal School, and Professor of Belles-Lettres and Teachers' Training; a graduate of the Am. Inst. of Phrenology.

THE SCIENCE OF THE MIND applied to Teaching. Including the Human Temperaments and their influence upon the mind. The analysis of the Mental Faculties, and how to develop and train them. The Theory of Education in the School; and Normal Methods of Instruction and School Management. $1.50.

This is one of the most important works ever written for teachers, and every teacher who would make the most possible of his work should read it.

SIZER, NELSON. Vice-President of the American Institute of Phrenology.

CHOICE OF PURSUITS; or, What to do and Why. Describing Seventy-five Trades and Professions, and the Temperaments and Talents required for each. Also, How to Educate on Phrenological Principles—each man for his proper work; together with Portraits and Biographies of many successful Thinkers and Workers. 12mo, extra cloth, 58 pp. $1.75.

For the above and all works on PHRENOLOGY, PHYSIOGNOMY, and LOGOLOGY, PHYSIOLOGY, etc., address their agent,

L. J. PAIGE, 184 COLLEGE BURLINGTON, VT.

HEADS AND FACES, AND HOW TO STUDY THEM; A Manual of Phrenology and Physiognomy for the People by NELSON SIZER and H. S. DIXON. 16mo, paper, 40c., extra cloth $1.00.

Here we have the whole subject of Character Reading arranged and classified so as to be easily comprehended by all. The pages are fully illustrated, and the work contains as much matter as the most of sold for several times this price.

FOWLER'S LECTURES on MENTAL PHRENOLOGY, PHYSIOGNOMY, and ETHNOLOGY. 1 vol. $1.50.

This work consists of the reports of ten lectures on Phrenology, and its application delivered by Mr. L. S. FOWLER, principal cities of Great Britain and Ireland. We can also supply Mr. Fowler's large work on Phrenology, and the work of the American Institute of Phrenology.
